TRAVEL TIPS

WHEN TO GO

Bali has a tropical climate and is warm and humid all year round. May to September is the dry season with slightly cooler temperatures. October to April is the green season and is warmer and more humid.

Bali's peak surf is during the dry season when the west coast provides the best waves, while the green season brings great waves to the east coast.

VISAS & PASSPORTS

All travellers to Bali must carry a passport valid for at least six months beyond the date of departure from Australia and obtain a visa on arrival into Bali which is valid for a 30 day stay. As visa information can change at any time, we recommend you seek advice regarding passports, visas and other travel requirements for the countries you intend visiting from the Australian Government at smartraveller.gov.au.

BALI TOURISM FEE

On 14 February 2024, a Bali Tourism Fee of IDR150,000 per person will be implemented. Payments can be made in person on arrival into I Gusti Ngurah Rai International Airport or at Benoa Harbour. Alternatively, payment can be made online via the Love Bali website or mobile app prior to arriving in Bali. Ask your travel agent for further details.

TIME

Bali is two hours behind Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST).

CURRENCY

The local currency is the Indonesian Rupiah (IDR).

TEMPERATURE & RAINFALL

Bali	J	F	M	A	M	J	J	A	S	O	N	D
Temperature (max °C)	29	30	30	32	33	31	31	31	31	31	31	30
Average rainfall (mm)	90	90	90	70	70	50	40	40	50	60	70	90

LANGUAGE

Bahasa Indonesian is the official language, however English is widely spoken, particularly in major tourist areas.

TIPPING & ETIQUETTE

Tipping is not customary; however a token of appreciation is always welcome.

When visiting any religious site, ensure you dress conservatively and avoid wearing short skirts, shorts above the knee, singlets or sleeveless blouses. A sarong and sash are usually available for hire at most sites. Remember to remove your shoes before entering a temple. Balinese culture is unique, so take some time to learn about the varying customs and requirements.

SHOPPING

From the moment you reach Bali, you'll be astounded by the sheer variety of goods on offer. At local markets and shopping centres you'll find the real bargains. Bargaining is accepted just about everywhere except in supermarkets, department stores and hotels.

ELECTRICITY

230V 50Hz. Two round pin plug. An adapter is required.

NYEPI DAY

Nyepi is a Balinese 'Day of Silence' celebrated on 29th March 2025. The day is honoured by no activity, no traffic, no fires and a total day of silence across the island. There are no arrivals or departures to the island of Bali on this day.

EXPERIENCES YOU'LL LOVE

The best part of any journey is the experiences you have along the way, leaving you with memories to relive long after the holiday is over.

Bali has countless amazing things to see and do. Here are some of our favourites to inspire your wanderlust.

LOCAL BALINESE FOOD

With many different cultures in Indonesia, it's no wonder Balinese food is so diverse. Make sure you try some of these famous dishes. Lawar (minced meat salad), sate (Bali's version of satay on a stick), Babi guling (sucking pig) and jajanan pasar (sweet cakes) just to name a few. Feast on fresh seafood at a beachfront restaurant in Jimbaran Bay or find a little café with local delicacies. Why not take a cooking class and learn how to make traditional Balinese dishes.

Tanah Lot

ANCIENT BALI TEMPLES

No holiday to Bali would be complete without visiting some of its peaceful scenic temples (pura). Perched atop a rocky outcrop amidst the crashing waves of the Indian Ocean, north of Seminyak, you'll find the most respected and important sea temple, Pura Tanah Lot. Further afield discover the holiest of temples – Pura Besakih on the slopes of Mount Agung, Pura Ulun Danu Bratan on the shores of Lake Bratan and the dramatic Pura Uluwatu. Central Bali is home to the 11th century Goa Gajah and The Gunung Kawi Temple.

Nusa Penida

UNDERWATER PARADISE

Discover a treasure trove of natural wonders under the sea at the Gili Islands, Nusa Penida and Nusa Lembongan. Only a 45 minute boat ride from Sanur Beach, the calm waters around Nusa Lembongan and Nusa Penida are a delight for snorkellers and divers. The clear waters are teeming with tropical fish and coral gardens. With 25 dives sites in the Gili Islands, see diverse marine life including turtles, reef sharks and rays.

Gili Islands

Pura Ulun Danu Bratan on Lake Beratan, is one of the most photographed temples in Bali

BEACH CLUBS

Bali is renowned for its beach clubs where you can swim, eat, sip on a creative cocktail and listen to cool tunes. One of the most prominent hotspots in Bali, Ku De Ta Bali offers an upscale beachfront space perfect for watching a famous Bali sunset. Spot celebrities and listen to DJ's at the poolside stage at Potato Head Beach Club in Seminyak. Take in the ocean views from the family friendly pool or adult's only area at Finn's Beach Club and with direct access to the beach, Ulu Cliffhouse features a 25 metre infinity pool and open air restaurant.

Finn's Beach Club

CULTURE & DANCING

In the early 15th century, the cultural beliefs of the Balinese and Hindu came together through dance and music. Today, this tradition is still very important and each dance has its own significant meaning to the Balinese people. The Barong Dance represents the fight between good and evil. The Kecak is a thrilling fire dance performed by chanting males, while the Frog Dance tells a romantic story inspired by the frog and a princess fairy tale. Don't miss the opportunity to see these dances performed in traditional villages, temples and even in some hotels.

YOGA & WELLNESS

Bali is renowned for its wellness retreats. The 'Island of the Gods' will help you relax, heal and return home a healthier person in mind, body, and spirit. Learn the art of meditation, relax with a yoga class or take part in a traditional Balinese ceremony or healing ritual dedicated to health and wellbeing. Join a yoga session in the Yoga Bale, located on the edge of the Ayung River at The Royal Pita Maha Resort in Ubud. Or start your day with a yoga class overlooking the ocean and end the day with a relaxing massage at Double-Six Luxury Hotel in Seminyak.
